When purchasing a product from us we will ask Users to provide information including their name, billing address, email address, credit card/payment details and account username. This information will be used to:

- Send information about a User's account and order
- Process payments and prevent fraud
- Respond to User requests, including support inquiries and refunds
- Set up User accounts in our store
- Comply with any legal obligations we have, such as calculating taxes
- Send product update messages
- Improve our offerings

When making a purchase we will store a User's name, and billing address, which will be used to populate the checkout for future orders.

We generally store information about users for as long as we need the information for the purposes for which we collect and use it, and we are not legally required to continue to keep it. For example, we will store order information for as long as a subscription account remains active with us. Inactive accounts are stored for 10 years for tax and accounting purposes. This includes User name, email address and billing address.

Contact Forms

A User's name and email address are recorded when contacting our pre-sales department. We do not use the information submitted for marketing purposes unless consent is explicitly given.

Report Downloads

A User's email address is added to a marketing email list when requesting a free report download. The email address provided will receive the report and marketing content from LearnDash as users give consent in exchange for the information.

Comments

A User's name and email address are recorded on this site when leaving a comment on a blog post. We do not use the information submitted for marketing purposes unless consent is explicitly given.

Analytics & Tracking

We use Clicky for website visitor analytics. We do not log any Personal Data of site visitors; IP addresses are anonymized, "Do Not Track" headers and global tracking is disabled.

We use ActiveCampaign site tracking to personalize experiences for any User who has purchased a product from us or who has willingly subscribed to an emai
ActiveCampaign when a purchase of one of our products is made or a User subscribes to an email list:

- Name
- Email Address
- Location
- Visitor history
- Interest tags

Cookies

Our Site may use “cookies” to enhance User experience. A User’s web browser places cookies on their hard drive for record-keeping purposes and sometimes to track information about them. Users may choose to set their web browser to refuse cookies or to alert users when cookies are being sent. If this is done then note that some parts of the Site may not function properly.

Who in our company has access to stored data

Members of our team have access to the information users provide us. For example, Administrators and Managers can access:

- Order information like what was purchased, when it was purchased, and;
- Customer information like name, email address, and billing information.

Administrators, Managers, and Support Representatives can access:

- Contact information (name and email address) from submitted contact forms.

Our team members have access to this information to provide user support.

What we share with others

We share information with third parties who help us provide our service, including:

- Zoho Subscriptions: We facilitate the checkout process using Zoho Subscriptions. When checking out, some user data will be passed to Zoho Subscriptions, including name, email address, billing information, and purchase total. Please see the Zoho Subscriptions Privacy Policy for more information.
- Stripe: We accept payments through Stripe. When processing payments, some user data will be passed to Stripe, including information required to process or support the payment, such as the purchase total and billing information. Please see the Stripe Privacy Policy for more details.

How we protect information

We adopt appropriate data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures to protect against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure or de password, transaction information and data stored on our Site.

Sensitive and private data exchange between the Site and its users happens over an SSL secured communication channel and is encrypted and protected with di

What rights users have over their data

If a User has left comments on this site then the User can request to receive an exported file of the personal data that this site holds, including any data provided by the User. Users can request that this data be erased. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes. The same rights are available for any data associated with commercial transactions made with our company.

Sharing of personal information

We do not sell, trade, or rent a User's personal identification information to others. We may share generic aggregated demographic information not linked to any personal identification information regarding visitors and users with our business partners, trusted affiliates and advertisers for the purposes outlined above.We may use third-party service providers to help us operate our business and the Site or administer activities on our behalf, such as sending out newsletters or surveys. We may share information with these third parties for those limited purposes provided that users have given us permission.

Third party websites

Users may find advertising or other content on our Site that link to the sites and services of our partners, suppliers, advertisers, sponsors, licensors and other third parties. We do not control the content or links that appear on these sites and are not responsible for the practices employed by websites linked to or from our Site. In addition, these sites or services, including their content and links, may be constantly changing. These sites and services may have their own privacy policies and customer service policies. Browsing and interaction on any other website, including websites which have a link to our Site, is subject to that website's own terms and policies.

Affiliate Links

Some blog posts and web pages within this site contain affiliate links.

An affiliate link is used as a mechanism for revenue generation. This revenue is generated by users who click on ads or hyperlinks within this website and then subsequently make a purchase on a third party website.

While the link usage does not increase a visitor's purchase price, usage of the link may result in a commission that is credited to this site.

We have chosen to recommend products and services that we personally use or have thoroughly researched.

The opinions expressed here are not necessarily the opinions of nor reflect the views of any merchants we are affiliated with or represent via affiliate links.

Changes to this privacy policy

LearnDash has the discretion to update this privacy policy at any time. When we do, we will revise the updated date at the bottom of this page. We encourage u changes to stay informed about how we are helping to protect the personal information we collect. You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility to r become aware of modifications.

Acceptance of these terms

By using this Site, you signify your acceptance of this policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our Site. Your continued use of the Site follow e deemed your acceptance of those changes.
